You and people like you are so important to us. We are grateful for you. We know you've supported us in the past. We know you believe that our jobs as state troopers are important to the security and well-being of our state.

Today, with political conflicts reaching a fever pitch and emotions running high, it is more dangerous than ever to work in law enforcement. What we do and what we wear (our uniforms) make it perfectly clear that we are there to uphold law and order.

The bottom-line truth is your Virginia State Troopers and Agents are here to help you. They want to insure justice, to protect you, and to make sure you get home safely. That's their responsibility. It's a responsibility they risk their lives for. Unfortunately, some don't see it that way.

It is through our Association that your Virginia Troopers and Agents reach out to you through the mail, once in the spring and once in the fall. And make no mistake, your support is critical. While others bicker and disagree, it is the strength of the VSPA that will maintain the strength, the solidarity and the commitment of your state law enforcement officers.

Thank you for working with us. You can get your 2019 VSPA stickers well before the end of this year by responding to this letter with a contribution. You will also become eligible to win our fall vacation. Please take a second to read the Trooper Talk for more information. Other than our website, it's our best source for getting information to you.

As we head into the holiday season and cooler weather, be careful, be safe and know we are there for you. Thank you again for your support and God bless you.

Sincerely,

Roy Kyle, President
Virginia State Police Association
