

Trooper Robin Lee Farmer, Badge # 866
Division I - Caroline County
End of Watch: September 3, 1981

Today and always, the Virginia State Police Family remembers and honors Trooper Robin Lee Farmer. Robin served as a Trooper in Area 44 – Caroline and King George Counties. His primary Duty Post was Caroline County.

Trooper Farmer gave his life in the preservation of law and order, and who, in so doing, lived and died in the best traditions of law enforcement's duty and service to mankind. Trooper Farmer and his shift partner were conducting a checking detail, when an approaching car turned around and sped away. During the pursuit that followed, Trooper Farmer's patrol car collided with an oncoming car. Trooper Farmer succumbed to injuries resulting from the crash becoming the 35th Virginia State Police Trooper to die in the Line of Duty.

Trooper Farmer had served and protected the Citizens of Virginia as a sworn member of the Virginia State Police for three years. He was survived by wife.

For the way he lived and served, Trooper Robin Lee Farmer is a true Virginia Hero. His memory lives and his dedication to serving the Citizens of Virginia stands as an inspiration and example for all.

In October of 2008, the Route 639 Bridge over Interstate 95 was renamed the Trooper Robin Lee Farmer Bridge to honor his memory.

Rest in peace brother.
